GEORGIA ASSOCIATION OF PROFESSIONAL AGRICULTURAL CONSULTANTS
CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I – NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Georgia Association of Professional Agricultural Consultants.

ARTICLE II – PURPOSES

Section 1 Promote the profession of agricultural consulting.

Section 2 Encourage and assist members to maintain proficiency in pest management and other agricultural practices via publications, technical workshops, and short courses.

Section 3 Encourage and aid agricultural research.

Section 4 Aid agricultural producers in the production of their crops with the most effective, economical, and environmentally sound techniques.

Section 5 Provide a balanced view to the public of the importance of agricultural pests, agricultural pest control, and the role of agricultural consultants.

Section 6 Provide technical assistance in the drafting of legislation affecting agriculture.

ARTICLE III – MEMBERS

Section 1 All members must be approved by a majority vote of the full members in an attendance at an official associational meeting.

Section 2 There shall be seven (7) classes of members: (1) Full, (2) Associate, (3) Provisional, (4) Student, (5) Retired, (6) Sustaining, and (7) Advisory. Only Full members shall have voting privileges.

Section 3 A full member must be engaged in agricultural consulting and meet the following requirements:

(1) An independent crop consultant providing recommendations and/or technical data for a fee that is itemized and billed to the clients; and who receives no compensation from a client’s purchase of and/or application of products based on those recommendations and/or data and further, if compensated as an employee whose compensation is not subsidized or supplemented by any portion of the employer’s revenue which is derived from the sale of products.
(2) Members must maintain a current commercial pesticide applicator’s license and be certified with commercial ground equipment, Category 21 with the Georgia Department of Agriculture.

Section 4 Those eligible for membership as charter members are the independent consultants known to be active and who have paid their dues as of June 1, 1990. Also, those charter members and any full members may not be employed by any government agency such as the extension service or the USDA.

Section 5 New members: To qualify for Full membership after June 1, 1990, applicants must complete a membership application form that has been signed by two full members of the association as sponsors and has provided references of individuals or other entities for whom the candidate has personally provided consultation and service. The applicant must possess a B.S. or B.A. or higher degree in Agriculture, Pest Management, or Biology and two years experience as a full-time crop consultant. A person with a non-agriculture related degree and six years experience as a full-time crop consultant may also qualify. The applicant shall agree with the objectives of the association and has agreed in writing to conform to the Code of Ethics of the association.

All applicants must have a current Georgia Department of Agriculture pesticide applicator’s license and be certified commercial with ground equipment, Category 21. Membership applications will be submitted timely to the membership committee chairman for review and to contact references. Applicants must be approved by majority of full members of the association at the next officially scheduled meeting.

Section 6 Associate members: To qualify for associate membership an applicant must submit a completed membership application and meet all requirements of a full member with the exception of involvement of the sale of and/or application of products that preclude voting membership.

Section 7 Provisional members: To qualify for provisional membership an applicant must support the missions and goals of the association and submit a completed membership application though the individual may not meet all requirements of full membership at the time of application; it is possible to move to other membership categories when specific requirements are satisfied.

Section 8 Student members: To qualify for student membership an applicant must be enrolled in an academic training program and submit a completed membership application.

Section 9 Retired members: To qualify for retired membership an individual must be retired from active crop consulting and previously held voting membership in the association for at least three years and submit a completed membership application.
Section 10  Sustaining members: To qualify for sustaining membership an entity must contribute $350.00 annually and be approved by majority of full membership.

Section 11  Advisory members: To be appointed as an advisory member the individual must be nominated by a full member, seconded by another full member, and approved by a majority of the full membership at an officially scheduled meeting.

ARTICLE IV – MEETING

Section 1  An annual meeting shall be held as specified by the Executive Committee. Additional meetings may also be called by the Executive Committee.

Section 2  An official meeting shall be any meeting of the Executive Committee of the Association membership held in accordance with the By-laws and attended by a quorum.

Section 3  A quorum of the Executive Committee shall be the number in attendance; a quorum of the Association shall be fifty percent of the voting membership.

Section 4  All business shall be conducted according to Roberts Rules of Order.
